Whatcom Parks and Recreation Foundation invites all to “swing into action for parks and trails”

The Whatcom Parks and Recreation Foundation (WPRF) will be holding their “sometimes annual” charity golf tournament on September 15th at Shuksan Golf Course after a 3-year hiatus. The event, sponsored by Brinderson Engineering, will begin with a shotgun start at 1 p.m.

The event price of $100 includes entry in the tournament and several contests, as well as a banquet dinner and a silent auction. Auction items have been donated from Yeagers Sporting Goods, Chrysalis Inn & Spa, and many other local businesses. The public is invited to attend, even if golfing isn’t their sport of choice. Dinner-only tickets are $30 dollars for inclusion in the celebratory banquet and silent auction.

“It will be a blast,” said board member Barbara Cory, “and the parks and trails of Whatcom County need support more than ever.”

More information about the event can be found at golf.wprfoundation.org.

The Whatcom Parks and Recreation Foundation is a 501(c)(3) non-profit dedicated to supporting and promoting parks, trails, and recreational opportunities throughout Whatcom County and its communities.
